

Yan Gu

+1 669 301 8212 | nju.guyan@gmail.com

EXPERIENCE

eBay

Senior Product Manager – Technical, Risk Platform

San Jose, CA, USA
2022.9 (Promoted in Feb 2024) – Present

- Product owner for eBay's Content Moderation initiative, driving end-to-end automation solutions by leveraging AI/Computer Vision capabilities and ML-based model to detect violations in user-generated content across eBay's user flows (listings, messaging, user info, Live chat, etc), and deliver measurable business outcomes through AB test
- Drive product launch for detecting malicious account registration and accounts take-over; set product goal for the launch, break down tasks for implementation; design product feature for risk data analysis tool, specify technical requirements to productionize risk policy
- Define product roadmap by aligning with stakeholders on business priority and goal metrics; make product prioritization decisions, setting key milestone for multiple dependency domain teams
- Lead post-launch optimization prioritization by monitoring key metric dashboards to enhance product experience and drive business results, including adding more advanced features, increase product coverage and reduce leakages

Shanghai, China
2020.7 – 2022.9

Product Manager – Technical, Risk Data Platform

- Lead a product development team for building and improving risk platform capabilities; set product vision and direction for real-time aggregation variable platform, location-based data service; design and set user experience for other risk platform products including risk profile and feature engineering
- Make decisions on product feature prioritization for meeting business goal and time-to-market need, including making trade-offs decisions by assessing and choosing the appropriate technical solutions
- Initiate projects on exploring new risk platform product opportunities and synthesize product ideas of alternative risk detection capability including from image metadata, verification record and native device info; Provide and communicate product value and roadmaps for the team and relevant stakeholders
- Engage product user to experience and adopt new features of risk platform products; evangelize new risk products and its capabilities to internal partners and potential users

Ping An Technology

Product Manager, Automated Portfolio Management

Shanghai, China
2018.5 – 2019.8

- Successfully pitched a customized robo-advisor product idea and roadmap tailored for a Singapore-based digital wealth management startup, resulting in a partnership contract that contributed to 170% annual revenue growth for the team.
- Led a cross-functional team of 20 people to implement the algorithm-based product solutions on client's App to help them gain market presence of digital wealth management in Singapore
- Solved problems of meeting minimum trade amount required by existing ordering system through investigating system rules and giving recommendation for defining product specifics
- Initiated weekly meetings between multiple parties including business managers, financial engineers and developers for 4 months to understand and balance product requirements and IT development resources
- Negotiated critical contract terms such as intellectual property rights and service levels with client's lawyer and business leader, achieving a five-year service agreement

Citibank

Product Manager, Banking Product

Shanghai, China
2016.5 – 2018.5

- Designed and launched 2-3 foreign investment products per month and negotiated pricing with issues to secure the best product terms; Embed FX service to offer local-currency denominated product, realized 150% YoY sales growth in 2017
- Drove optimization of operation procedure to increase the velocity of money movement, while balancing risk control measures, to improve customer satisfaction and keep them more engaged with banking products
- Developed GTM strategy by leveraging insights learned from customers, executed through training over 100 sales staff on key features and selling points of each new product and sharing them success stories of sales
- Earned fast promotion to Assistant Manager in 8 months (normally 2 years); managed and coached new graduates daily

Wells Fargo

Operations Analyst, Performance Reporting

Saint Louis, MO, USA
2014.7 – 2015.9

- Analyzed investment portfolio returns and interpreted return diagrams to financial advisors to helped them to better communicate with clients and serve their investment needs
- Adjusted investment return outliers by analysing customer portfolio accounts to present accurate performance reporting; audited sample statements to enhance customer satisfaction

EDUCATION

University of Colorado Boulder

B.S. in Computer Science

Boulder, CO
2023 – 2025 (expected)

INSEAD

MBA Class of 2020

Singapore
2019 - 2020

Columbia University

M.A. in Climate Sciences

New York, NY, USA
2012 - 2013

Nanjing University

B.S. in Atmospheric Sciences

Nanjing, China
2008 – 2012

Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA)

Passed Level 1 & 2

2018